ADDITIONAL QUALIFICATION INQUIRY
PURSUANT TO TCA §39-17-1351 AND USC 922 (g)(9)

On September 30, 1996, Title 18, United States Code, Section 922(g)(9) took effect, making it illegal for anyone who has been convicted of a misdemeanor crime of domestic violence to possess any firearm or ammunition. "Misdemeanor crime of domestic violence" is generally defined as any offence – "whether or not explicitly described in a statute as a crime of domestic violence – which has, as its factual basis, the use or attempted use of physical force, or the threatened use of a deadly weapon, committed by the victim's current or former domestic partner, parent, or guardian." The term "convicted" is generally defined in the statute as excluding anyone whose conviction has been expunged or set aside, or had received a pardon.

- (1) Have you ever been convicted of a misdemeanor crime of domestic violence within the meaning of the statute? Yes_____No_____
- (2) If you answered "yes" to the first (1st) question, provide the following information, with respect to the conviction:

Court/Jurisdiction:_____

Docket/Case Number:_____

Statute/Charge:_____

Date Sentence:_____

I hereby certify that, to the best of my information and belief, all of the information provided by me is true, correct, complete and made in good faith. I understand that making any false, oral or written statement or exhibiting any false or misrepresented identification or documentation is a Class B misdemeanor punishable by a fine not to exceed five hundred dollars ($500), and further punishable as a Class A misdemeanor pursuant to the penalties of perjury, §TCA39-16-702.
